ONLINE GAMING & CHILDREN'S WELLBEING

What 100 parents told us about concerns, family impact and gaming rules

Total Parents Surveyed
100

Gaming-Specific Respondents
67

Fear of Addiction %
94.0%

Fear of Academic Impact %
91.0%

Parents who believe gaming rules are necessary.

Rules Necessary Display
97%

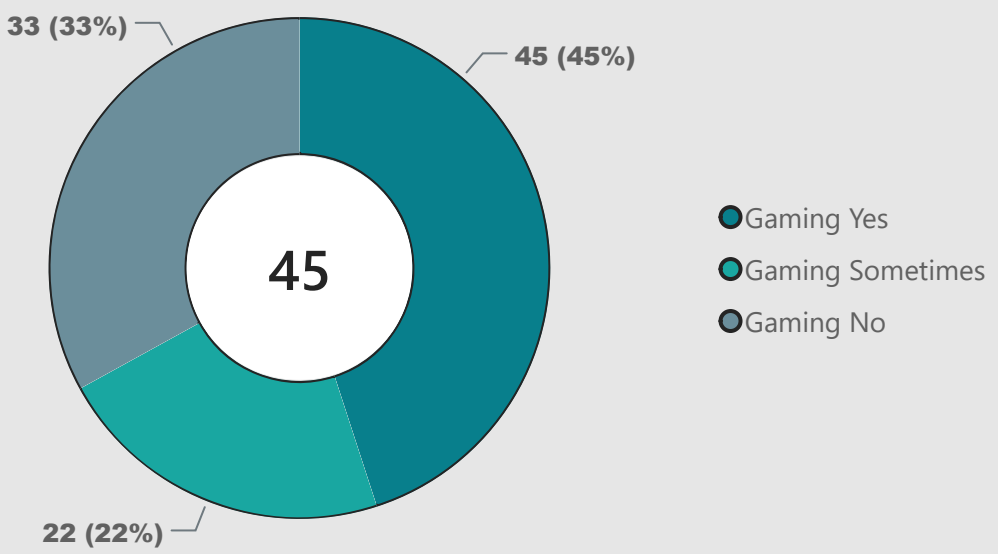

Content Fear %
88.1%

Parents reporting family frustration

Family Frustration %
62.7%

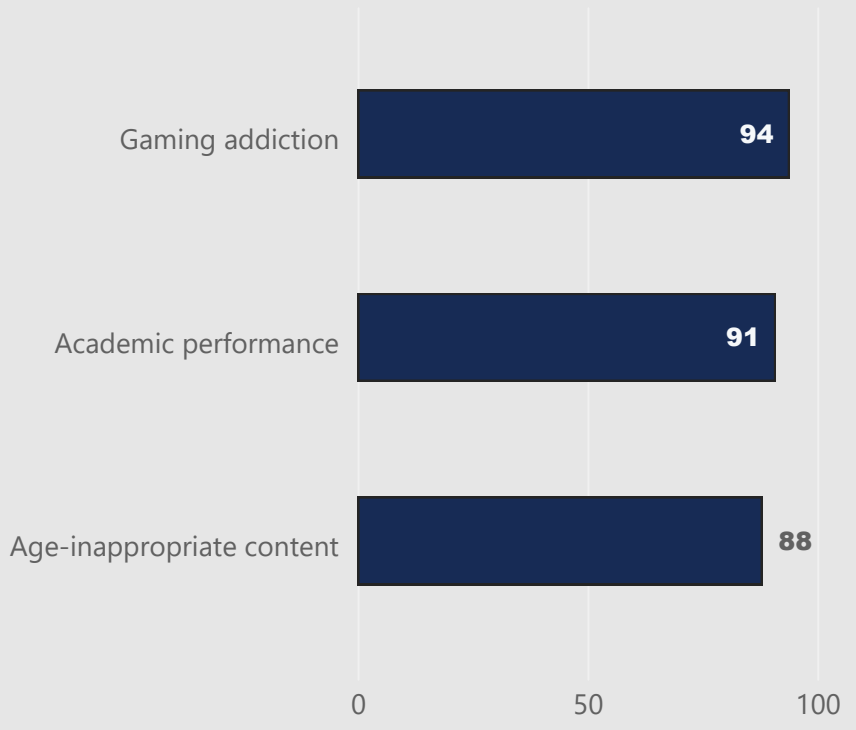

Does your kid play games ?

Yes, Sometimes and No

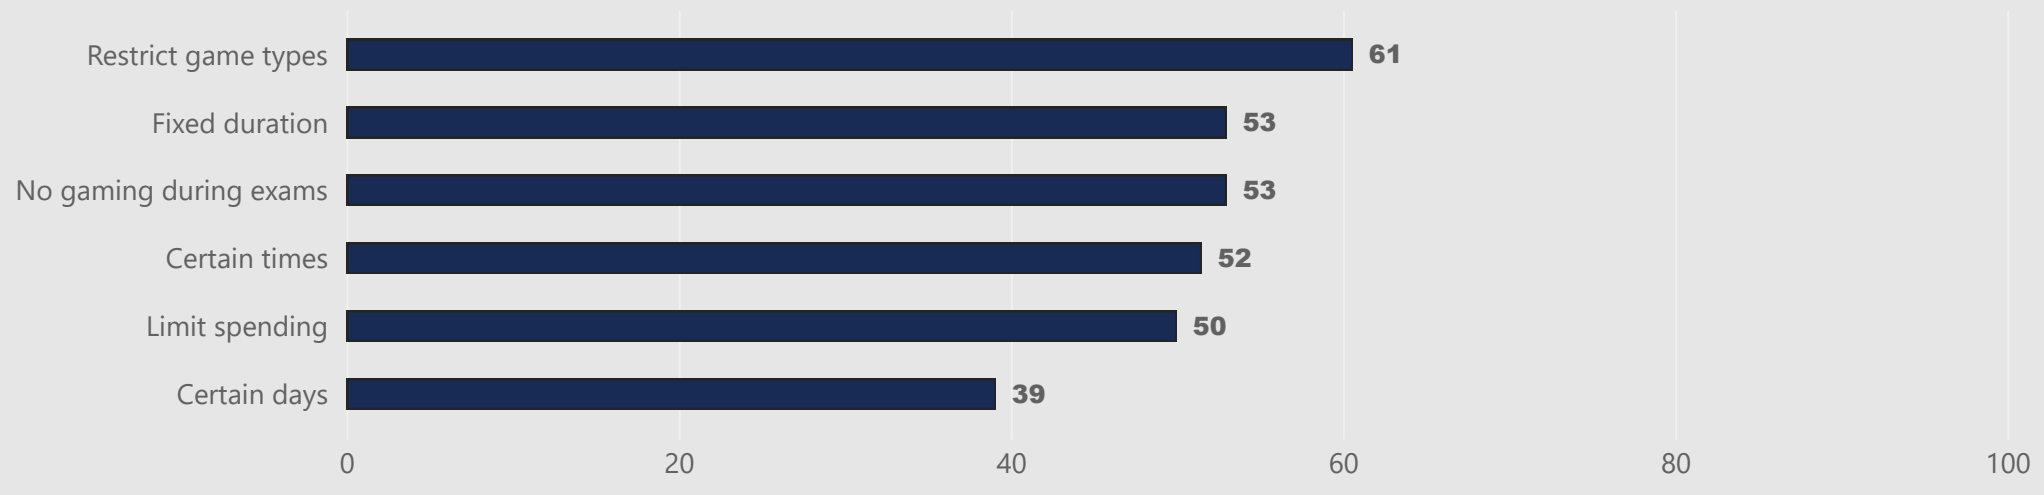

What parents worry about

Medium/high fear among 67 respondents per question

Which rules do parents prefer?

Multiple rules could be selected. Percentages are based on valid responses per rule.

KEY INSIGHT

Parents' concerns extend beyond gaming addiction: 91% reported medium/high fear of academic impact, while 88% reported medium/high fear of age-inappropriate content. Restricting game types was the most commonly selected gaming rule (61%).

Source: YourDOST parent survey (100 responses). Gaming-specific findings use valid responses for each question. Results reflect parent-reported perceptions, not measured child outcomes.